

FIRST CASUALTY—The heavy blow that marked early hours of 15th annual Rochester Race yesterday stopped Skookum 3rd, Commodore F. Ritter Shumway's schooner, shown above at the start of the race. Three hours later, winds that topped 50 miles in gusts ripped Skookum's mainsail and damaged rigging. Eight yachts were left sailing 377-mile course.

Lake Upholds Reputation

Aug 24, 1952