

from Jimmy Castle

CONNIE the CONQUEROR

Skipper Walter Wintdeyer of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club congratulating Skipper Wilmer C. V. (Roney) Castle while Commodore Phil G. Hoffman holds the Canada Cup trophy of the contest.

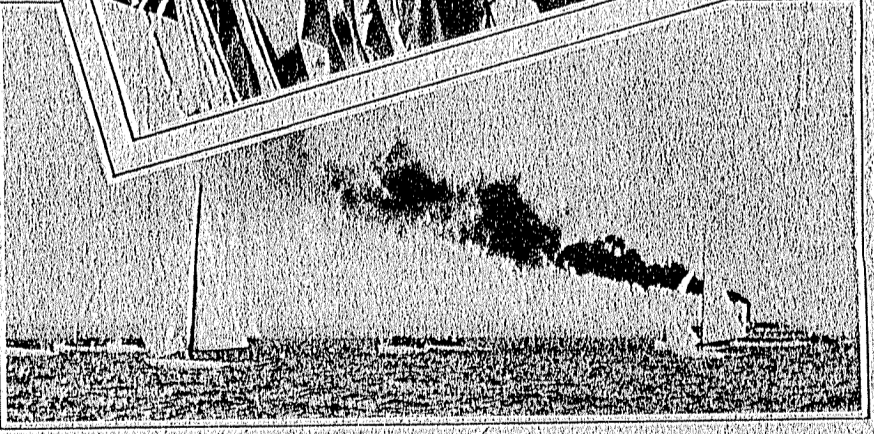

The "Victory Parade" in the Port of Rochester channel just after the finish of the fourth and decisive race in which the Conewago crossed the finish line just 2 1/2 seconds ahead of the Invader II.

The victorious Conewago crew who rightly earned the plaudits of perhaps the largest and most enthusiastic crowd of "land" sailors that Rochester has ever witnessed. Left to right: Walter Catley, Walter Wintdeyer, Commodore Phil G. Hoffman, Skipper Wilmer C. V. (Roney) Castle, Eugene Brennan, Mortimer Anstutz, M. Farland.

The Royal Canadian Yacht Club crew that always managed to keep the Invader II a trifle too close to the Conewago for the latter crew to be seen for a while about it.

The Invader II coming down on finish line with the wind.